

Bylaws of the Fort Worth Camera Club

Fort Worth, Texas USA

ARTICLE I

Name and Purpose

Section 1

The name of this organization is Fort Worth Camera Club. The purpose of the Club is to promote interest in photography and encourage development of photography skills.

Section 2

The Club is a not-for-profit organization. No part of its net earnings shall inure to the benefit of any private individual.

ARTICLE II

Parliamentary Authority

These by-laws govern the conduct of the Club. "Robert's Rules of Order" (current edition) will govern parliamentary procedures and decision making by officers and the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE III

Members

Section 1

The Club has three classes of members: Regular, Lifetime and Honorary.

Regular members pay annual dues, may hold office, participate in club governance, enter competition and enjoy all privileges of membership as determined by the Board of Directors.

Lifetime members are honored for maintaining a verified total of 30 or more years of membership. They may hold office, vote, enter competition and enjoy all privileges of membership as determined by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may waive annual dues for Lifetime members.

Honorary members may be elected by the Board of Directors for their service to the Club and/or to photography. They pay no annual dues, may not hold office, may not vote and may not enter competition.

Section 2

Application for Regular Membership will be made by submitting a membership application form (available on the Club website and at meetings) and by paying annual dues in full. Regular membership is subject to approval by the Board of Directors.

Section 3

The Board of Directors may suspend or terminate an individual's membership. The Board will provide by either telephone, email or USPS, reason(s) for suspension or termination, and the time, date and location of a board meeting to discuss suspension or termination, at least five (5) days prior to that meeting. The individual may respond or attend the meeting to discuss and/or appeal the board's decision.

ARTICLE IV

Dues

Section 1

The Club's annual fiscal, membership and operating year will begin January 1 and terminate December 31.

Section 2

Annual dues will be paid by individuals at a rate to be set by the Board of Directors. Dues will be used to fund Club operations and programs as determined by the Board of Directors. Dues may be submitted with a membership form (available on the website and at meetings).

Section 3

Annual membership dues will be payable in full in January or upon joining, and will be valid for the Club's fiscal year, which terminates December 31.

Those who pay annual membership dues in full are eligible for competition, inclusion in the member directory, holding office, voting and for any other member benefits approved by the Board of Directors.

After January 31, eligibility for member benefits will begin on the date that annual dues are paid in full and remain valid for the Club's fiscal year, which terminates December 31.

Section 4

Those who join the Club on or after July 1 will pay one-half annual fiscal year dues for membership valid through fiscal year termination on December 31. These members will be eligible for competition and voting and any other member benefits approved by the Board of Directors.

Section 5

Club presidents may have membership dues waived for one year following a completed term of office.

Section. 3

A newly elected board and directors will meet with calendar year officers prior to December 1 as a transitional meeting. The newly elected board and directors will take office January 1.

ARTICLE IX
The Board of Directors

Section 1

The Board of Directors will consist of eleven (11) members: four (4) officers, six (6) directors and the immediate past president. The immediate past president will serve for one (1) year following the final year in office.

Section 2

The Board of Directors will be the governing body of the Club. It will have complete management and control of the Club's property and funds, and will have final control over committees and the affairs and conduct of the Club.

Section 3

Vacancies in an elective office will be filled by appointment by the Board of Directors for the remaining portion of the vacated term.

ARTICLE X
Duties of Officers

Section 1

The President will preside at all meetings of the Club and the Board of Directors. The President will appoint all committee leaders subject to the ratification of the Board of Directors. The President will be an ex-officio member of all committees except the Nominating Committee. The President will supervise the disbursement of funds as directed by the Board of Directors.

Section 2

The Vice President will perform the duties of the President in the President's absence, act in an advisory capacity and perform other duties as assigned by the President.

Section 3

The Secretary will prepare and maintain records of proceedings of all meetings of the Club and of the Board of Directors, conduct the Club's correspondence and perform other duties as assigned by the President and the Board of Directors.

Section 4

The Treasurer will have charge of all Club monies, including collected dues, disbursements and credit/debit cards, and will maintain records of all transactions, receipts and expenditures.

The Treasurer will deposit collected dues and other monies to the credit of the Fort Worth Camera Club at a financial institution(s) selected by the Board of Directors.

The Treasurer will verify or assign and record a member number when dues are collected.

The Treasurer will manage disbursements paid by check or other methods with approval by and/or signature of the President.

The Treasurer will present a written financial report at each quarterly meeting of the Board of Directors and provide a written financial report to the membership after the termination of the Club year. The Treasurer's year-end written report will be available on the Club website for a specified duration in the Members Only, password protected area.

An Assistant to the Treasurer may be appointed by the President to help with Treasurer's duties.

ARTICLE XI

Committees

Section 1

Standing committees will be: Communications, Competition, Historian, Membership, Outings, Programs and Workshops.

Section 2

The President may establish additional committees or committee assistance deemed necessary, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors.
